

The 2025 Nepalese pro-monarchy protests were held in Tinkune, Kathmandu and its nearby locations led by monarchists Durga Prasai and Nabaraj Subedi advocating for the restoration of the old ...

Massive protests led by Generation Z demonstrators erupted in Kathmandu on Monday against corruption allegations against the government and the recent ban on several major social ...

During Monday's demonstration, protesters tried to storm the parliament building in Nepal's capital Kathmandu to demand the resignation of the prime minister. In response, security ...

Violence broke out between the police and pro-monarchy activists in Kathmandu on Friday as protests erupted demanding the restoration of the monarchy and Nepal's status as a Hindu ...

Nepal's army has deployed patrols on the streets of the capital Kathmandu, as the Himalayan nation reels from its worst unrest in decades.

The move ignited mass protests across Kathmandu, led largely by Generation Z demonstrators. The crisis underscored the fragility of small South Asian democracies and raised ...

Nepali protesters, angered by a bloody crackdown, defied a police curfew and took over the streets of the capital Kathmandu on Tuesday, setting fire to the Supreme Court, parliament and ...

KATHMANDU -- On September 8, thousands of Gen Z protesters took to the streets of Kathmandu, Nepal's capital, and other cities to demand accountability over corruption allegations ...

International and national rights organisations have condemned the killings of protesters in Kathmandu and Sunsari on Monday and demanded a transparent investigation into the horrendous act.

On 9 March 2025, thousands of supporters welcomed former King Gyanendra Shah as he arrived at Tribhuvan International Airport in Kathmandu. A spokesperson for the pro-monarchy Rastriya Prajatantra Party stated the turnout "shows how frustrated the people are with the present government, and they are in search of an alternative to the present system." The arrival of the former King in the city took place amidst of tight s...

Kathmandu Valley's return to normal life hinges on easing movement restrictions, restoring services, and mobilizing civic initiatives. As security forces maintain order, residents witness ...

Web: <https://anaelenaartistapmu.es>