

This tool enables you to filter by borough, sector, and year to dig deeper into London's energy use and emissions data. This site interleaves plots for Greenhouse Gas Emissions and...

The London Energy and Greenhouse Gas Inventory (LEGGI) is an emissions inventory which quantifies greenhouse gas emissions released to the environment from activities in London.

This dataset reports on UK Power Networks' use of paid flexibility services. UK Power Networks uses flexibility (demand/generation turn up/down) in London, the South East, and the East of England...

ABB has delivered a life extension and expansion project for LondonEnergy's energy-from-waste (EfW) facility that will ensure continued production of sustainable energy and processing ...

The Alpha version of the Local Area Energy Plan (LAEP) DataHub - a central library for London's energy data.

Summary of energy consumption between 2010 and 2016 broken down by borough, sector and fuel type.

The dataset provides detailed information about UK Power Networks' Primary Substations within the CIEN and South London LAEP subregions.

Energy consumption from domestic, transport and industrial source broken down by key energy type (coal, gas, petroleum products, manufactured fuels, renewables and electricity).

Creating energy from waste to power homes and business. The white haze from our cooling towers is actually just water vapour from steam powering turbines for electricity production. Household waste ...

Web: <https://anaelenaartistapmu.es>