

Piloting a Near-Peer Lay Counselor Based Problem Solving Therapy Intervention for Youth With and Without HIV in Botswana: An Adaptation of the Friendship Bench

Also, HIV and HBV laboratory and production facility workers must receive specialized initial training, in addition to the training provided to all work-ers with occupational exposure. Workers must have the ...

Learn how medications can be used to treat substance use disorders, sustain recovery and prevent overdose.

HIV testing remains a crucial part of the HIV prevention package and the current 95-95-95 programme. This course is therefore, designed to provide counsellors and individuals who are interested in ...

The adolescent mental health treatment gap is a significant public health challenge, especially in low-resource settings where services are often adult-oriented. The Safe Haven ...

HCT Training HIV Counseling to Testing Training (available upon request - minimum of 25 to 30 paying trainees) CAMP's HCT Training is a certification workshop mandated by the DOH Administrative ...

The National HIV Curriculum is an AIDS Education and Training Center Program and led by the University of Washington.

Training opportunities are related to HIV care, prevention, Partner Services, and other topics of interest. Information about upcoming HIV and STI related events as well as additional training and ...

Web: <https://anaelenaartistapmu.es>