

The European Commission has approved, under EU State aid rules, a EUR103 million Romanian scheme to support the construction of electricity storage facilities.

Romania's Ministry of Energy has announced a new EUR150 million funding call under the Modernisation Fund to support investments in battery storage, enabling the use of renewable energy ...

The new scheme focuses on developing individual storage units that absorb energy when prices are low and inject it back into the grid when prices are high. The total budget is 150 million euros, with ...

Within this competitive bidding procedure, projects that aim to implement a new electricity storage capacity behind the meter (battery), connected to an existing renewable energy ...

The Romanian Government has drafted a state aid mechanism for the production and transport of geothermal energy for district heating or cooling systems. The proposed scheme would ...

The Romanian Ministry of Energy launched a grant program funded by the Modernization Fund. It offers EUR150 million to support building battery storage systems connected to existing ...

On 17 September 2024, the Ministry of Energy of Romania launched a State aid scheme to support investments in the development of electricity storage capacities.

The Romanian Ministry of Energy has launched a grant program for battery energy storage systems developed in conjunction with existing renewable energy facilities - wind, solar, or ...

Romania is emerging as a key market for renewable energy storage. Explore the main laws, incentives, and opportunities shaping investments in batteries and hybrid storage projects.

In 2022, Romanian Ministry of Energy launched a state aid scheme supporting of investments in building manufacturing capacity for production, assembly and recycling of batteries, photovoltaic cells and ...

Web: <https://anaelenaartistapmu.es>